TSC Membership Guidelines

- If a boat has two or more owners, both/all owners should be full members.
- Children under the age of 16 should be under adult supervision when using the club facilities.
- Adult children not living at home will be expected to become club members or must be accompanied at all times with a member and will be considered a guest.
- The clubhouse combination should not be given out to non-members. Members should be present with their guest.
- All parties will be done with an RSVP in order for the host to plan the amount of food needed to serve those attending. If you RSVP for a party and do not attend, a bill will be sent to you.
- It is the responsibility of all members to help keep the TSC clubhouse clean.

I agree to abide by the above membership guidelines.
